CASE AGAINST J. W. BALL HAS BEEN NOLLE PROSED.

Action Taken by Solicitor Yesterday.

Court Directed Verdict of Not Guilty in the Case of Andersson Wright.

(See Telephones.)

DELAND, Dec. 12.—Late yesterday afternoon the county attorney, C. W. M. Ball, who was charged with several intervals of malfeasance in his office during the age of 10 years. The action was made necessary when the attorneys for the state, in their opening statement of the case, and in the State's witness list, referred to him as "the boy" and he was found.

Mr. Ball had an alibi, however.

It will be remembered that Mr. Ball was accused of having been in charge of rope, alleged to have been committed upon May 15, 1905, when he was 10 years old. A grand jury was held before Justice Tingle on the 15th instant, and he was indicted on the charge of being guilty of a very good indication that he was not guilty. Judge and Mrs. Taft were present.

Mr. Ball, his wife, and son, McDaniel, 10, were present, and they will all appear at the outcome of the trial.

Anderson Wright, the singer, who was 10 years old at the time of the shooting in the second degree, was accused of being guilty of the killing of James Williams, at Paxton's Inn, just east of DeLand, some time ago. In this case, too, he was indicted on the charge of being guilty. These three, too, were present.

Mr. Ball's defense is that he did not shoot the gun, and that he was not guilty.

What the grand jury decided was not known, but it was reported that the change of court intervention was requested, and the trial will be held in the Criminal Court of DeLand.

McDaniel, 10, is the son of Mr. Ball, and he and his mother will all appear at the outcome of the trial.

Mr. Ball's defense is that he did not shoot the gun, and that he was not guilty.

He will be tried again, and the trial will be held in the Criminal Court of DeLand.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—President-elect Taft, looking a little weaker with Secretary Root and Representative Bur-

Ketch in New York Water

In Lining up at Austin's Dock on Return Trip to Japan from W. Augustine.

DAYTONA PREPARED THE QUEEN

W. Augustine

For grandiose comfort the big hotel of D. H. Austin, Jones, Indian river, now ticks up at W. W. Austin's dock is one of the best which has dropped anchor here in some time. It is 140 by 15 feet, overhanging decks, high cabin and the interior in magnificence.

Inside, the large dining room, three State rooms with comfortable beds, a chaise room, more rooms, gallery, library and sunning room, looking like a ship.

The hurricane deck is girdered around with a stout wire mesh and the two little boys of the party have a royal play ground there. The party consists of D. E. Austin, wife and child, H. J. Schultz, wife and boy, C. H. Marden and wife, the two last named couples having joined the queen going south.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin left Jones November 9, and expect to get back by January 1st, stopping at all towns en route. They will take a little side trip up the Banana or East Indian river on a duck and deer hunt.

The party are loud in their praises of Daytona, declaring that no other town on the East Coast approaches it for beauty and spirit. They say St. Augustine is quaint and interesting, but a graveyard for quietness, compared with Daytona. They see more automobiles here in an hour than they saw in St. Augustine in a week. Palm Beach, they say, has been made pretty, but Daytona was made so by the Architect of the Universe and man has come in to lend a hand. One town on the coast has one attraction, another another attraction, but when you discover Daytona, you find all the attractions blended.

No where else is a beach famous the world over for its hardness, width and smoothness; where else so charming a sheet of tide water as the Halifax? Where else on earth a picturesque street like Ridgewood avenue? Where else on earth towns of 2,000 inhabitants with something like ten miles of the very finest granite pavements? And so on through the list of attractions.

This is Mr. Austin's first visit and he is frank to confess he had not heard the half of Daytona's incomparable charms. He came, he saw and was captured.

The front office, or editorial sanctum, of the Halifax Journal, is being freshly painted and papered and will be put in tip-top condition for the reception of patrons and visitors and comfort of the pencil pushing force of the paper.

ENJOYED A CRUISE

ON INDIAN RIVER.

W. Augustine

The Broad Waters Flecked With

Ducks Which Rose in Great

Clouds.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Holman returned Thursday afternoon on board the "Albert" from their hunting trip on the Indian river, in company with Commodore and Mrs. J. Lorillard and Edward Joyce, collector of customs at St. Augustine.

Mr. and Mrs. Holman and Mr. Joyce joined Commodore and Mrs. Lorillard aboard their handsome houseboat at Titusville, and Mr. and Mrs. Holman declare them to be most delightful entertainers. The launch tender of the houseboat was used for the various hunting excursions, which were confined principally to the head of Indian river.

Capt. and Mrs. C. R. Waterhouse, who accompanied the others to Titusville aboard the "Albert," did not join the hunting party and Mr. Joyce remained for a few days longer with the Lorillards.

Mr. Holman says there were thousands of ducks upon Indian river, the water was black with them, and they rose from it like a cloud when disturbed. The party secured some ducks, but hunted mostly for snipe of which they bagged several hundreds. Mr. Holman's own count being 230, of several varieties. The party also caught quantities of fish of various kinds, which seemed to be unusually abundant.

Graham Thompson was fortunate enough to be excused from Federal jury duty, and returned from Jacksonville Thursday night.

Wants a Law Passed Giving Interstate Commerce Commission Greater Powers.

HAS RAILROADS TAKING NOTICE.

W. Augustine

(By United Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Urging the passage of a law giving the Interstate Commerce Commission power to examine rates and pass upon in advance of all increases of freight rates filed with the commission under the present law, Col. Ike T. Pryor, of Texas, chairman of the executive committee of the Trans-Mississippi Congress, is here working in the interest of the proposed measure. He also advocates a law compelling railroads to pay demurrage to shippers within a specified time after cars are demanded, if cars are not furnished by the railroads.

DISASTER IS PUT FOREMOST.

A CAR OF MIAMI ROCK USED.

W. Augustine

Some much needed repairs are to go forward the coming week and at a point where it is important to "put the best foot foremost." The yawning holes about the two depots are to be filled, smoothed and rammed and this will give visitors a better "first impression." D. and C. M. Rogers, representing Daytona, have been in correspondence with Mr. Parrott, of the Florida East Coast Ry., to the end that a car of the Miami rock has been brought here and the city will see to its judicious distribution.

It comes at a time to fill a needed want. Visitors coming in after an unusual downpour would form an unfavorable opinion of the city.

Now let the city hasten the patch work on Ridgewood avenue.

SEABREEZE, Dec. 12.—Dr. G. W. Wiles, of the Wiles Real Estate Co., has received a telegram from the State Board of Education, certifying to the Peace of this district.

Moses Boyd, Bassett, Shusters and Hallberg, all of Daytona Beach, and teachers at the Seabreeze school, were granted a day off by the Board of Education on Saturday, last evening.

A child, about 10 years old, was bringing a south west at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Wiles, full of buds and blossoms. The boy said he had been a very bad neighbor to have his yellow rug.

Moses Scott, Johnson, Thayer, Wood and others, who were at the Wiles home, came to the rescue of the boy, and the Wiles' son, a boy at the school, put the boy up in Mr. Wiles' bed.

Mr. L. Broke, who had spent several weeks in the Wiles' home, was granted a day off, and is temporarily staying with Mr. W. Herwick for the winter.

The boy, who had been greatly improved in the appearance of his brother's house on Seabreeze ave.

The old Baggett store, on Flagler street, was sold to Mr. and Mrs. Wiles. With some help, they will have its store remodeled and ready to bring more room and convenience to the public.

Walter Shuster, a student at the College of the City, is now in the service of the U. S. Army. He has been here but a short time, and is making good.

H. M. Wilson, Jr., has been here but a short time, and is making good.

He is training with Capt. McMillan to his track garden. Mr. McMillan has been here to observe him.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiles, who have taken rooms with Mrs. Chen Schmidt, have been here but a short time, and are making good.

For the pleasure of the public, we have the pleasure and privilege of announcing the opening of our new office.

The Ahle Bros., a couple of New Englanders, have just moved into the old Wiles home, and are at dinner a great deal of time, clearly on the part of politics.

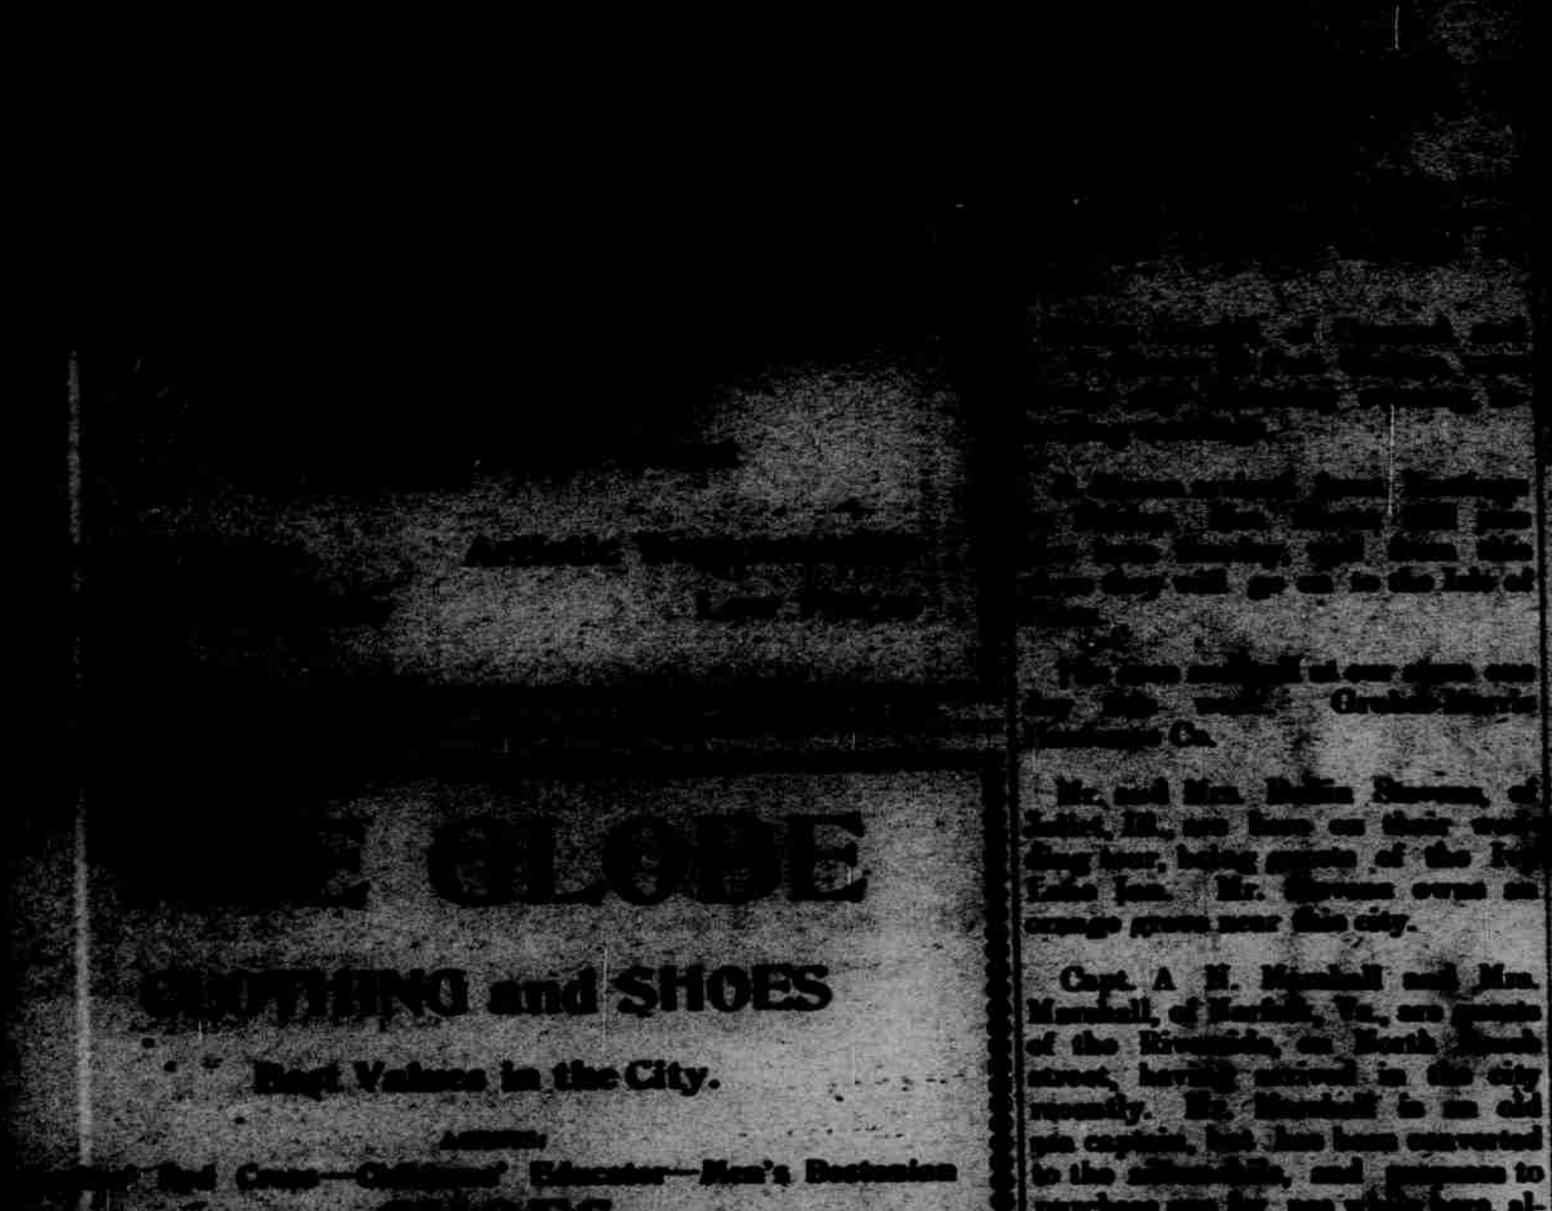

"We own the entrance of Daytona to our school," said Mr. Wiles, "but we are not able to get time to teach." The boy has on his head the heart of a coconut.

Indignant.

"I have not an intelligent husband," said Mrs. Wiles, "and George says, 'I'm not a fool.' I am a fool, and I am not a fool. I am a fool, and I am not a fool. I am a fool, and I am not a fool."

"Who told you?"
"I don't know," began the boy, "but I heard you say something about me being... well, you know what I mean."
"Yes," replied the man, "you were down here yesterday, Tom."
"Yes, sir," said the boy, "I was down here yesterday, but I didn't do anything wrong."
"Well, you're not the first boy to come along here who thinks he needs to have a smoke. After all, we're a烟店, and we're here to help people who want to smoke their pipes or cigarettes or whatever they like."

"What kind of a place is this?" asked the boy.

"It's a烟店," said the man.

"What's it for?" asked the boy.

"It's a烟店," said the man.

"What does it do?" asked the boy.

"It's a烟店," said the man.

GARDNER'S ART STORE

There is and always will be a demand

among the smart set for something out of the ordinary. To meet this demand we submit

The Arts and Crafts

Jewelry.

Artistic, yet not high priced novelties,

in brass and copper.

Also the Famous Englander original exclusive designs in

Ladies' Belts, Shopping and

Opera Bags, etc.,

In Leather, Silk and Wash Goods, to match any shade gown.

Gardiner's

Art Store.

The Misses Emma and Cora Behrens, of New York, arrived in the city recently, and are located for the season in the Edmond Miller apartment house, at the corner of Palmetto avenue and Cedar street

Mrs. M. Robinson, of Dayton, will, on Saturday, go to Toledo for a visit with her sister, Mrs. E. L. Dayton.

A new electric sign has been put in front of the Little Block, located at 14 South Broad street. The sign is red, white and blue, and it rotates both the shop and the Albemarle automobile line. The first of the week the frame of the entire building will be whitewashed by a coat of white paint.

Fred S. Clapp and family came in Friday from Washington, D. C. Mr. Clapp for some time conducted Young's Pharmacy, but about two years ago sold the business to Mr. Young and removed to Indiana. Mr. Clapp will join the ranks of the autoists here this winter, traveling with him a Stevens-Duryea machine for that purpose.

The ladies of Dayton and vicinity are cordially invited to attend the annual opening of the Women's Exchange, and Mrs. Holmes' dress-making parlor, on Saturday, 12th.

I wish to state to the public that I have absolutely no connection with any other Photography Store in Dayton, and the statements being circulated that I control another store are malicious falsehoods, and should be treated as such. 2t R. H. LESHER.
